This 373m2 build 6 bedroom, 2 bathroom townhouse which includes a self contained apartment as well as outside spaces is situated in popular Castillo de Locubin in the Jaen province of Andaluca Spain. Being sold part furnished, with air conditioning, patio, a balcony and 2 sun terraces with countryside and mountain views, the spacious property is ready to move into and to enjoy the warm sunshine of southern Spain and the laid-back lifestyle of inland Andaluca. Located on a wide street with on road parking you enter the main living accommodation into a quality hallway with a room to the left that is used as a good size office at present, ahead passing the staircase with a storage room you have a lounge with a wood burner which leads to your spacious fitted kitchen diner with granite worktops and lots of storage. From the kitchen you have direct access out on to a private terrace for alfresco dining with mountain views, you also have a toilet washroom off this terrace that has space to add a shower. The quality staircase takes you to the first floor landing from where you have the master bedroom with balconies and air conditioning, a further 2 double bedrooms and a fully tiled bathroom. The staircase continues to the second floor landing from where you have a good size double bedroom, 2 further rooms which could be bedrooms or one of them converted into a bathroom, on this level you also have a larger private sun terrace with spectacular countryside and mountain views. Back at street level you have a separate entrance leading to that self contained studio apartment as well as a large room that was previously used as a hair salon. On the market for 94.000,00 euros and ready to move into this spacious townhouse with a separate apartment offers a great deal of accommodation for the price.
